Directors Message

The true aim of education, apart from gaining knowledge, is to develop the character, individuality, will of a child, and to enrich his/her mind and soul. S R public school focuses on education in broadly two aspects: knowledge with its real-life implementation and character building to be a responsible citizen of your country. One aspect teaches students how to make a living and the other how to live.

At SRPS, we want to assure that a student learns only because learning is fun. SRPS trains students to apply what they know to real life. We aim to produce a pool of new generation thinkers who are going to be leaders, innovators, entrepreneurs etc. and not just mere rote robots. For the same, SRPS provides world-class exposure and ample opportunities for the students to expand their horizons. One of our main focus points is to equip students to make informed career decision rather than adopt the herd mentality.

Lastly, I believe there's only one thing in one world that cannot be stolen from you, it's your learning and education. No matter how hard times are, it will be always with you; an investment in education pays the best interest.

Health and nutrition of kids is of great importance at SRPS.

Emphasis is on English conversation and stage exposure at an early age to ensure that our tiny tots bloom into confident individuals.

Primary & Senior Wing

Since these are the most formative years of a child, we focus on individual attention through smaller class sizes and individual counseling. We also try to inculcate the value of hard work and discipline at a very young age.

Instead of emphasizing rote learning, we encourage experiments, experience-based education and critical thinking.

The classrooms are equipped with digital technology that is used to help students master to complex topics. Due emphasis is give to our moral values, customs, values, and culture.

Art Room

Art room is a space for students to express and create. Students are trained in drawing, painting, clay modeling, and craft work. It is here that students hone their aesthetic sense and foster a love for art and creativity.

Swimming Pool

Swimming pool can be heaven for children on a hot summer day. It offers recreational benefits as well as exercise and relaxation. SRPS has a well-maintained state-of-the-art pool.

Sanskaar Shivir

After the prayer at assembly we have shloka and mantra recitations and discussions on our cultural values. We train students to perform surya namaskar properly and encourage them to practice regularly for their well being.

Co-Curricular

Training to students in music, dance and drama is imparted by highly competent staff. Annual functions are a pleasure to watch where the accomplishments of student in various fields are highlighted and appreciated.
